Affordable

Because Catholic Charities is strongly supported by the Diocese of Greensburg, contributions from individual donors and United Way appeals, the agency is able to offer its counseling services at affordable rates.

Counseling fees are based on income and family size. Many types of insurance are accepted. Catholic Charities' counseling fees are always less than the prevailing rates for comparable services.

Confidential

Catholic Charities recognizes persons seeking counseling services have the right to confidentiality. Information they provide will be treated with respect and confidentiality by all staff.

Catholic Charities is committed to maintaining client confidentiality with the exception of disclosures required by Federal and State laws.

Inclusive

Catholic Charities provides counseling services to all residents living within the four-county Diocese of Greensburg (Armstrong, Fayette, Indiana and Westmoreland) regardless of religion, race, sex, age, nationality or political belief.
